Pilot Certificate # _____ SSA member # _____

To receive this scholarship you must attend the Women Soaring Seminar in the year in which you are applying for a scholarship. Information about the seminar is available on the WSPA web site at womensoaring.org. The seminar scholarship is called the Briegleb Scholarship. It is for up to $750 (U.S. dollars) to be used for registration expenses and soaring flight charges accrued during the seminar.

The Briegleb Scholarship is for women who are student pilots, working toward a Private Pilot Glider Certificate. There is no age restriction.

Applicants are judged primarily on realistic goals and dedication to those goals. Supply the following:

1. A copy of your seminar registration. (if chosen, you will be reimbursed)
2. An essay of 500 words or less explaining your goals and previous experiences as they relate to gliders and how this scholarship will help you meet your goals.
3. A photo, preferable with a glider, no sun glasses, that we may use in our publicity.
4. A copy of your pilot certificate (front and back) Note: This will be your student license, if you have one. It is not a requirement.
5. A copy of your latest entry in your logbook that shows your total flights/time.
6. Any other evidence that indicates your dedication to obtaining your goals.

I agree to let WSPA use the enclosed photo(s) for their publicity purposes _____
