Pilot Certificate # _____ Rating scholarship will be used for _____

This scholarship is open to women who are licensed glider pilots seeking to obtain an additional rating such as Commercial Pilot Certificate for Gliders or Certified Flight Instructor for Gliders. Applicants must be members of WSPA. The scholarship may be used at any glider flight school (commercial or club). Money will be made available on a monthly basis to the specified flight school as expenses are incurred for a total not to exceed $1500. If flight training will take place in a club setting, a portion of the scholarship funds may be used for the club initiation fee. Funds may also be used for written exams and flight exams.

If the applicant is a licensed pilot, SEL and Glider, she may use the scholarship for a Tow Pilot endorsement and must show taildragger training and time.

Applicants applying for this scholarship are expected to complete the rating sought within one year of receiving the funds. A 6 month progress report and photograph must be submitted to WSPA and may be used for publication in the WSPA newsletter..

Please enclose the following:

1. An essay of 500 words or less explaining your goals and previous experiences as they relate to gliders and how this scholarship will help you meet your goals.
2. A photo, preferably with a glider (no sunglasses), that we may use in our publicity.
3. A copy of your pilot certificate(s) (front and back).
4. A copy of logbook entries that show you are working on or have met the requirements for the rating sought.
5. Any other evidence that indicates your commitment to the sport of soaring.
6. The name and address of the gliderport where you plan to take your training.

Application deadline is May 15. Mail application to:
